To All Members,

PROVISIONAL ANTI-DUMPING DUTIES ON POLYETHYLENE TEREPHTHALATE (PET) RESINS ORIGINATING FROM REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

Reference is made to the GAZETTE issued by the Federal Government of Malaysia dated 6 January 2025. The Government has decided to impose provisional anti-dumping duties on the import of Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) resins from the Republic of China and Republic of Indonesia beginning 7 January 2025 to 6 May 2025.

The product subjected to the anti-dumping duties refers to the PET resins classified under Harmonised System Code (HS Code) 3907.61.0000, originating from the Republic of China and Republic of Indonesia. The Ministry of Investment Trade and Industry (MITI) Malaysia has completed the preliminary anti-dumping investigation on the above and has determined that there are sufficient grounds to impose provisional anti-dumping duties on import of PET resins from the alleged countries.

The preliminary anti-dumping duties will be effective 7 January 2025 to 6 May 2025. A final determination in relation to the investigation would be made on 6 May 2025.

Provisional anti-dumping duties shall be levied and paid by the importers for bringing in PET resins from the Republic of China and Republic of Indonesia into Malaysia by the producers or exporters specified in table below at the rate of duties specified in the right column:
